

Network of Executive Women addresses the common business interests and issues of women in executive, professional and entrepreneurial roles through the exchange of ideas, information, and experience.

From the President~

I know I already sent a thank you out to all of you but I just want to say thank you again to all our "Exec's in Our Network". Our GNO Chair Carol Norman and all her committees did an incredible job and made the whole evening exciting and fun. A shout out to all our models... You Go Girls... they all looked gorgeous. We also learned how to exercise, how to look good while exercising and have a great body. (I think I was at the wine tasting tables when that was going on) They too, were all fabulous, energetic and fun.

I hope all of you are able to attend our April Scholarship luncheon so you can see the fruits of your labor and support. It is truly rewarding to see and hear what these scholarships mean to the talented women who receive them.

Our December luncheon is the time we donate warm articles to the local nursing homes, so if possible, please bring an unwrapped gift for our nursing home donations. The December luncheon will also have another fun networking program. So come to network and get the chance to know each other better.

Speaking of luncheons we are having a problem with our registrations. It is very important to sign up by the Friday before the luncheon and include any guests you are bringing. Aldario's needs an accurate count and you also get the benefit of the lower price. If you and your guests don't sign up or you sign up after Friday by 5:00 PM, then you will get charged the higher price and I would hate that to happen to anyone. I find the best way to register is to take a few seconds to sign up as soon as you get the Contact from Judy Gould. Donna Marino is doing a great job with the registrations and I know this will be a big help to her.

I also want to take this opportunity to wish you all a wonderful Thanksgiving. Even in these hard times we have so much to be thankful for. So wrap yourself up in the warmth of your family and friends and give thanks for all you have.

I hope to see you all at the December 2nd luncheon.

Maria

Business Tip of the Month

Many small businesses end up with all of their eggs in one basket. They have one customer who accounts for the majority of their sales or one product which dominates their business.

Don't put all your eggs in one basket. But, if you must, have a plan to get some other baskets as quickly as possible. And, in the meantime, keep a watchful eye on that single, concentrated basket.
